CARRER SUMMARY

I started my career in the designing and video editing industry in 2021 by doing small projects for creators, such as editing their gaming videos and thumbnails. By doing these tasks on a daily basis, I also started editing their vlogs. In 2022, I got my first job at Upasana Group as graphic designer cum video editor. In 2023, I left Upasana Group and joined Dr. Nature Wellness as a graphic designer and video editor, where I am currently working. Over the past years, I've self-learned graphic design and video editing, completing over 15 local projects and freelancing successfully, improving my skills through tutorials, online courses, and hands-on practice.
